Print

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Media Contact: 202-268-2155
January 4, 2007

Comment on President's signing statement accompanying Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act

"As has been the longstanding practice, First Class Mail is protected from unreasonable search and seizure when in postal custody. Nothing in the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act changes this protection. The President is not exerting any new authority."

Thomas Day, Senior Vice President, Government Relations
# #

Close Window

[Editors' Note: The above was copied, without change,
from the web site of the United States Postal Service (http://www.usps.com/communications/news/press/2007/pr07_day0104.htm)
on January 16, 2007, and saved as a PDF file.]